

Introducing.... TONY PISANELLI

Tony's Speaking Topics

1 How to Confidently Transition from a Job You Hate to a Life You Love

Many people drag themselves to work to endure another painful and dissatisfying day. They feel trapped in their current job not realising there is a safe way out. This presentation outlines the steps to transition from a desperate job to an inspiring career without disrupting important life priorities.

2 How to Turn a Hobby into a Satisfying Career

Many people don't appreciate the importance a hobby plays in connecting their work with something that provides them with greater meaning and purpose. The presentation will show you how to discover career opportunities hidden in your favourite past time.

3 How can you Develop an Entrepreneurial Mindset?

Many careers are struggling with the speed of change and unrelenting demands. This presentation will show you how to follow the lead of a few savvy individuals who have discovered how to sustain and elevate their careers through the chaos.

About Tony

Tony Pisanelli is a Career Transformation Coach, Author and Speaker. Tony successfully navigated his corporate career through several reinventions that allowed him to rise above dissatisfaction and avoid the pain of job loss that struck thousands of people who worked for the same company.

Tony is passionate in studying the minds of entrepreneurs such as Jeff Bezos, Steve Jobs, Warren Buffet, Anita Roddick and so on.

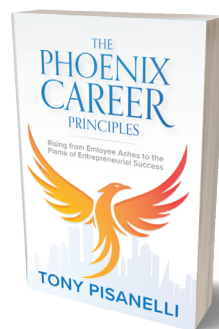

'Tony is one of the most engaging guests I have had on my show. He offered practical insights that came to life. My audience was left inspired and motivated with clear next steps.'

– Cloris Kylie
Beyond Influencer Marketing Podcast Host

'Tony has a great stage presence which engages the audience with great stories and powerful insights.'

– David Lee
Financial Specialist

Tony's Book

In this book you'll discover exactly how to take control of your career to harness your creative potential, enrich the lives of others... and experience the freedom to be the successful entrepreneur you have always wanted to be.